Winter

For Wind Ensemble

Composed by: C.M. Lozano

Style: Contemporary / Reflective

Duration: ~2:40

Instrumentation: Wind Ensemble

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Winter is a short musical portrait of the season, evoking its stillness, nostalgia, and quiet beauty. Rather than depicting any particular holiday or celebration, the work seeks to capture the atmosphere of winter itself, making it a fitting addition to a wide variety of seasonal concert programs.

The opening emphasizes sustained harmonies, spacious phrasing, and delicate ensemble balance. As the music develops, melodic passages emerge, inviting performers to explore expressive color, dynamic sensitivity, and musical communication.

Particular attention should be given to the shaping of sustained phrases, the pacing of fermatas, and the natural movement between moments of stillness and activity.

Questions, performance notes, or commission inquiries are always welcome. I enjoy working with music directors across a wide range of program sizes and settings.

Gratefully,
